Review of December Christmas Party

The American Legion in Sparta, WI was the meeting place of our Christmas Party and we had a good turn out (11 people) considering the weather wasn't good.

We ordered our meals (ribs or steak) and held our meeting while they were being prepared.

There were no minutes or Treasurer's Report cause Marshall didn't make it to the meeting. The agenda mentioned our charities, the Samboree, and the Jumbo which no one had any questions about so we moved on.

Randi talked about places we are receiving

Birthdays/Anniversary Gift Raffle. We had 4 gifts (2 from the Chapter & 2 from the Johnson's for their anniversary and John's birthday). We also had 3 cranberry candles that were used as decorations that we drew names for. We raised $12.00 & the winners were: Jim De Voe got a candle, Bonnie Owen got a candle, and John Johnson got a candle. Jenny Johnson got a plastic canvas bag with a Christmas towel and potholder, a cranberry ornament and a candle. Lu De Voe got Christmas hand towels. Cheryl Keene got a Christmas decoration and Patsy Wagner got a Christmas decoration.

free advertising and they too were listed in the Agenda for everyone to read about.

Randi finished the Constitution and will bring it to the next meeting so everyone can review it and bring it back with recommended changes to the February meeting if there are any.

Membership cards will be handed out at the January meeting since the Secretary couldn't make it to this one.

Bonnie Owen started printing pictures that we take and put them in a photo album for those that don't have computers.

We were unable to take any of the pictures we need, so we'll try again next month.. Birthday and anniversary wishes were extended.

Next meeting will be at the Greens Restaurant in Sparta. We will order off of the luncheon menu. We would like to see as many of you as possible, but understand if you can't make it.

Jim DeVoe made a motion to adjourn, Keith Keene second it, approved. Good timing - the food has just arrived.
